

Large Loss Insurance Claims Testimonials

Corless Law Group is nationally recognized for its extraordinary expertise, experience and excellence in litigating insurance disputes and property damage claims. Our priority is to resolve cases successfully and efficiently. For over 25 years, our award-winning trial lawyers have helped hundreds of clients recover half a billion dollars for insurance losses suffered in Florida.

We provide outstanding legal services to our clients who have experienced property damage due to windstorms, hurricanes, tornadoes, sinkholes, fires and floods. We also collaborate with other lawyers, public adjusters, and property managers to recover benefits owed, who may not have our experience and resources.

In these testimonials and endorsements, you will see firsthand how our integrity and tenacity has helped scores of multi-unit dwelling owners, Homeowners Associations, Community Association Managers (CAM), Licensed Community Association Managers (LCAM), Association Management Specialists (AMS), Boards of Directors, Property Managers, and the like who are involved in complex insurance disputes.

We appreciate our clients and their willingness to share their reviews. While no two cases are exactly the same, these five-star rave reviews illustrate how our law firm provides successful, client-focused legal services. We take very few cases, but those that we do take, we own from the claim to trial, and if necessary, through appeal to maximize recovery for our clients.

"Ted Corless will fight for your case in court. I had a loss denied by Citizens Insurance of Florida and my home was a total loss. They denied the case without properly investigating the loss. Citizens doesn't like lawyers like Ted that take them to task and make them accountable for their fiduciary responsibilities. I interviewed several attorneys and Ted Corless impressed me because he was the only one that was willing to go to trial. We had a jury trial in the Pinellas County Courthouse in St Petersburg. Not only was Ted gifted during jury selection but his dissection of the defense strategy left the jury with an easy two hour deliberation with a decision in my favor. If you want to win and you are patient then you won't be disappointed."

"Corless was really a pleasure to work with throughout our insurance claim lawsuit. They handled everything in a professional manner and guided us to a successful conclusion. I would highly recommend them!"

- Joel Ivers, President of Condo Owner Association of 66 unit property

"For the folks who do not already know Ted and his firm, he does what he tells you he'll do and is the epitome of a good human being."

- Tom Mattingly

"I had an amazing experience with this law firm. I researched a lot of law firms in the Tampa Bay area for my case, and knew this was the right one upon our first consultation. They went above and beyond, and by far well exceeded my expectations. If you want the best representing your case, this is the firm to go to!!!! I am forever grateful for their success in my case. Thank you so much!!"

"We are so grateful to the law firm for representing us and for being such a powerful advocate for us with the Insurance company. We would never have gotten this far without the support. It was also a great experience working with the staff, who were always quick to respond to our emails and provided valued information throughout the duration. It is such a big relief for us now with the settlement and it feels great to know we can get everything accomplished. Thanks again!! :)"
